About the book

Inclusive Education is a challenge, especially for making a new generation, a new global periphery. Inclusive Education was the dream of Veda, later, Swami Vivekananda as he always welcomed the masses in the venture of education. Even today, The National Policies on Education put stress on the concept of 'Inclusive Education' to get the persons sensitized properly so that the true concept of Inclusive Education will be put into practice. On the other hand, the misinterpretation of the concept of 'Inclusive Education' may result in evil effects.

The present seminar proceeding is focused on different educational strategies of the experiences of different people narrated their research findings which will be applicable in different dimensions of disabilities in an inclusive
